CAMPAIGN TO RETAIN VISITING NURSE IS STARTED HERE TODAY

CANVASSERS WILL DEVOTE WEEK TO IT

MARY MOORE PRESENT NURSE

During Work Since August 17, 1915,
She Has Made 1,363 Social
Service and Nursing Calls.

This week will be devoted to a campaign, which opened today, to retain Miss Mary Moore as visiting nurse here. The campaign is being conducted under the auspices of the Rush County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. A number of Rushville men have enlisted to help raise enough money to make a visiting nurse permanent here, and prominent among them are the physicians.

It is stated that something like nine hundred dollars will be needed to keep Miss Moore here. Small slips have been printed and were being circulated today. Those who desire to aid the cause may place the sum they will give on the slip may pay it at their convenience. It

A meeting of the canvassers will be held at the office of Dr. W. C. Coleman, president of the county society Wednesday evening, at which time reports will be made and it will be determined then with just how much success the campaign is meeting.

Miss Moore has been here as visiting nurse since August 17, 1915, and during that time she has accomplished a wonderful good. Numerous examples may be found where the visiting nurse has been the salvation of a family in distress because of illness and improper care.

During the time that she has been here, Miss Moore has made thirteen hundred and sixty-three calls. That is an average of ten call a day. Those are classed as nursing visits and social visits. Of the former she has made seven hundred and eighty and of the latter, five hundred and eighty-three.

Miss Moore's work is divided primarily into three parts. In the first place, she is employed by the county anti-tuberculosis society and watches closely the cases of tuberculosis in the county. This part of her work includes the county, to a great extent. Although she can not keep in close touch with cases in remote parts of the county, she goes wherever she is called.

In the second place, she looks after all kinds of sickness among people who are in such circumstances that they can not afford to employ a nurse.

In the third place she cares for a number of chronic cases of sickness, persons who are bed-ridden and helpless.

One of the finest services Miss Moore performs is teaching people in their homes how to care for the sick—how to handle contagious diseases to prevent other members of the family from becoming infected. Some of her best work has been done among sick babies. The lives of a number of infants have been saved through her service.

Once called into a home to render service as a nurse, Miss Moore always has access there and keeps in touch with the family. Through acquaintances thus gained she be-

COMMENTED ON BY MINISTERS OF CITY

They Agree That Project is Best Investment People of the City Could Possibly Make.

HER SERVICES INVALUABLE

Point Out That Improving Physical Conditions is Step Toward Improved Moral Conditions.

Ministers of the city yesterday commented, during the course of their regular sermons, on the visiting nurse campaign which opened today. They were all agreed that the support of the visiting nurse project was the best investment the city could make because improved physical conditions are but a stepping stone to better moral and spiritual conditions. In the following brief comments, the ministers discussed the plan:

Main Street Christian

The Rev. C. M. Yocum spoke briefly Sunday morning concerning the effort which will be made this week to keep a visiting nurse here. He said:

"Miss Mary J. Moore should by all means be kept at work as visiting nurse in Rushville. She is doing the best piece of social service and uplift work that has been done in Rushville in years. Her work of education and prevention and care in homes of tuberculosis patients alone is paying rich dividends. Her service in other homes where the presence of a trained nurse is precluded because of financial reasons is a God-send. The character of her service gives her access to homes where not only her work as nurse is invaluable but where instruction in cleanliness and sanitation can also be given and where the laws of better living can be instilled. The field for constructive suggestion in the homes of young people whose education in the vital things of life have been neglected is almost limitless.

"Miss Moore's work is not only valuable to those who are fortunate enough to be her patients but by her general standard of living is raised and by reaction all those living in the city are blessed. If she never has occasion to call in your home, your home never-the-less is blessed because she visits in the home of your neighbor. The man who won't help his neighbor keep his garden clear of weeds will soon have weeds in his own garden.

"Miss Moore's work is the spirit of Christianity personified; the crystallization to do a piece of charity work that you can confidently know will bear fruit. Then help this cause."

St. Paul's M. E.

At the morning service at the St. Paul's M. E. church yesterday, the Rev. A. D. Batchelor spoke briefly of the plan to keep a visiting nurse here. He praised the project with vigor and urged that it be given the support that it deserved. He called attention to the fact that whether the visiting nurse was retained depended entirely upon the generosity of the people.

The Rev. Mr. Batchelor pointed to the excellent work the visiting nurse had done and could do if she were given proper support. He recalled that the betterment of living conditions and the uplifting of the

LEAKING ROOFS CAUSE DAMAGE

Several Merchants Suffer Loss
When Snow on Buildings Melts
Suddenly From Rainfall.

WALKING VERY BAD SUNDAY

Gutters Are Cleaned Today So Crossings Are Passable Once More
—Colder Tonight is Word.

The heavy snow going off with the rain yesterday resulted in severe damage to several business houses from leaky roofs. The rain melting the snow made too much water for the down spouts to carry off and in many instances the down spouts were filled with ice. The natural result was the water banked on the roofs and finally leaked through.

The slush on the sidewalks and in the streets made travel very difficult. For a time it was thought there was danger of a flood but the river did not get out of its banks. The heavy covering of snow protected the ground which was not frozen over two or three inches and most of the water was absorbed instead of staying on the surface. The ground was very dry and could stand a large amount of water.

F. B. Johnson and Company druggists, probably suffered the heaviest loss of any of the merchants. The water fairly poured in the rear of the store and damaged between 2,500 and 3,000 rolls of wall paper. About one-half of one section of the wall paper department was damaged. The exact damage could not be determined as the paper will be allowed to dry in the bins before an invoice is made. Every roll of paper that the water hit is spoiled as it is spotted.

The water flowed from the roof of the building occupied by the Johnson drug store over on to the building south and Frank Wilson sustained a damage before the leak was discovered. Several suit cases and traveling bags were spotted by water. Damage resulted on the second floor as well as on the first but it was confined to the front of the building.

Damage was also done at the Mauzy Company store and at the T. W. Betker store. The roof at the Mauzy Company store began to leak in several places early Sunday morning and men were immediately put to work getting the snow and slush off the roof and a greater loss was prevented. The water poured in the Betker store from around the sky-light. Many residences were also damaged and roofs seemed to leak in places where they never had before. The roof of the new Masonic temple sprang a leak last week and the frescoing in the reception room was damaged.

The south wall at the Hiner livery barn gave way yesterday and practically every brick fell out of place. The building did not collapse because there was a board wall inside the building. The wall had been expected to let go for some time because the bricks were barely held in place.

Street Commissioner Will Havens was busy today cleaning out the gutters with the big street scraper so that the water could get an outlet. So many crossings were impassable yesterday because the slush piled up and prevented the water from running off. The gutters in the downtown district were cleaned out after the snow fell so that the conditions there were not so bad.

Colder weather is expected tonight to stop the sudden thaw so that there will be absolutely no danger

DRAIN CASE IS BEFORE COURT

Judge Sparks Hears Petition of
Voorhees and Nora Cavitt and
Others to Make Repairs.

REMONSTRATORS FIGHT IT

Court Revises Calendar and Sets
Down Cases For Next Five
Weeks—Many as 7 in a Day.

Judge Sparks heard the petition of Voorhees Cavitt, Nora Cavitt and others, to repair a drain, today in the circuit court. The drain, known as the Lilly Cavitt ditch, is in Jackson township and the land for miles around it affected. The case attracted no end of attention. The petitioners are attempting to show the court that the cost, damages and expenses of effecting the proposed drain will be less than the benefits.

Witnesses were introduced to tell the benefits the farms through which the drain runs will receive. Witnesses stated that the Cavitt and would be benefited from $5 to $10 an acre and that the Hal Green land would be benefited anywhere from $3 to $7.50 an acre. The William Newkirk land, according to witnesses, would be benefited by the drain from $2 to $5 an acre.

Several remonstrances have been filed against the proposed improvement. Arthur E. Kirk, et al., Leonard Weeve, and James and Mary Travis have filed remonstrances and are fighting the case in court. The case was not expected to be completed today.

Judge Sparks has revised the court calendar and has made out a new one for the first five weeks of the February term. The trial calendar is very heavy and some of the oldest cases are expected to be taken from the docket this term. As high as seven cases in one day are set for trial. The calendar is as follows:

- Feb. 1.—Cavitt drain.
- Feb. 3.—Walker vs. Ideal Husker Company.
- Feb. 4.—Cavitt vs. Kirkpatrick, executor.
- Feb. 5.—Warner Instrument Company vs. Moore.

FINAL CHARGE WILL BE FIZZLE

Rev. S. G. Huntington Says Ammunition of "Wets" in This Campaign is all Very Damp.

TALKS OF COMING ELECTION

Declares That Fact That Saloon is Vicious Enemy to Society is Already Established.

Though the "wets" have been on the job for months preparing for the expected "wet" and "dry" election here, a careful examination of their works will reveal that nerve-wrecked men are behind the guns, that admittedly their ammunition is all wet and that their efforts to deliver a deadly fire in the final charge will prove a fizzle, according to the Rev. S. G. Huntington, who preached at the First Baptist church last night on the subject, "Am I My Brother's Keeper?"

"We haven't time to generalize so much on the issue before us," he declared at the outset. "The fact that the saloon is a vicious enemy to society is too well established already in the minds of most people, though some are loathe to admit it, to require lengthy arguments along that line.

"The question is, will the 'drys' get busy and keep the saloons out of Rushville if an election is called, as now seems certain from the action of the 'wets'? It is high time to begin counting noses. There is no neutral ground on this question. We are either 'wet' or 'dry.' With rare exceptions, count the neutral man 'wet' every time, for were he 'dry,' there are but few reasons, if any, that would prevent him from declaring his position. As well talk of being neutral when your neighbor's house is on fire and burning down over the heads of its inmates. A man is either willing that the house and inmates should be burned or else he will show his heroism, sound the alarm and do his level best to rescue those in peril. Human sympathy and the ties of brotherhood would demand that he act unhesitatingly in behalf of his neighbor.

"It is only logical that the churches of this city should take an active part in the fight. And certainly the church member is to be pitied who falters or in any way gives his influence to the enemy at this time or at any other time. Christ said: 'He that is not with me is against me,' and again, 'Ye can not serve God and Mammon.'

"We need to be aroused to the seriousness of the situation. There is no use to try to minimize conditions although victory is just as certain as an election is held, providing the 'drys' roll up their sleeves and go at the job like they meant it. There is a bigger 'dry' sentiment in Rushville than 'wet' and it is up to the 'drys' to express definitely their sentiment in an organization and at the polls.

"Of course, the 'wets' have their trenches all dug and their guns in position. They have been on the job for months past. But listen, a careful examination of their works reveals the fact that nerve-wrecked men are behind the guns, that admittedly their ammunition is all wet, and that their efforts, therefore, to deliver a deadly fire in the final charge will prove a fizzle.

"However, they are making a bold stand and are trying hard to recruit their ranks, resorting to subterfuge and every means imaginable that it is peculiar to the saloon custom to do. But do not be either deceived or alarmed by their bold arguments,

OVERRULES THE 27 DEMURRERS

Judge Anderson Holds Attack of 27
Terre Haute Defendants on Jurisdiction Are Groundless

115 MUST STAND TRIAL NOW

Holds Right to Vote For U. S. Senators and Representative is Secured by Constitution.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 1.—Judge A. B. Anderson in the United States court for the Indiana district today overruled the demurrers of twenty-seven defendants in the cases charging conspiracy to defraud the government. The jurisdiction of the court was attacked.

As a result of today's ruling 115 Terre Haute politicians must stand trial here. Of these eighty-three have pleaded guilty and five not guilty. Mayor Donn M. Roberts, Circuit Judge Eli Redman and Sheriff Dennis Shea are most prominent of these. With them are most of the Terre Haute official family.

The court upheld the theory that a conspiracy to violate the state law adopted by the United States for the election of United States senators is an offense against the United States. The indictment was upheld in every particular. Following the ruling the twenty-six who demurred pleaded not guilty. The cases of 115 defendants was set for March 8.

Judge Anderson held that the right to vote for United States senator and for the district representatives in congress is a right secured by the constitution and the laws of the United States and that the rights to serve on boards of such elections also is a constitutional right. The first count of the indictment was based on that theory.

The first count charged that a conspiracy existed to prevent qualified voters from sitting on election boards and from voting for the congressman.

SENATOR SMITH RESUMES SPEECH

Call Democrats "Treasury Looters" and Says Fitzgerald "Turned State's Evidence."

FILIBUSTER STARTS AGAIN

(By United Press.)

Washington, Feb. 1.—After a week end truce, Republican filibuster against the ship purchase bill went into action anew at ten a. m. today. Both sides claimed ultimate victory. Senator Smith of Michigan resumed the filibuster against the ship purchase bill when the senate convened following his speech of over six hours Saturday night.

"Treasury looters" was one phrase Smith applied to the Democratic party. He said Chairman Fitzgerald of the house appropriation committee himself a Democrat, "had turned state's evidence" against the majority party by criticizing lavish appropriations as a "horrible mess."

"Carranza ordered the American troops out of Mexico," was another of Smith's assertions.

$3000.00 FIRE PREVENTED

The House the Red Jacket Saved

Read This Letter:
"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap set length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect.

Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

SUBSCRIBING FOR A NEWSPAPER?

Several Things to be Considered Before Giving up Your Money. For News.

GET NEWS WHILE ITS NEWS

If your home is not receiving one of the county newspapers and you are considering subscribing for one of them—be sure that you investigate the manner in which the newspapers gather their news. Get the newspaper that gives you the news, while it is news. The subscription price of a newspaper is a small item if they deliver the news fresh every day—a dollar paper that gives you the news two and three days old, news that has been copied from the other home papers, is fooling you in the attempt to make you think that it is a newspaper, and is expensive at the price. Comparison will quickly show you which paper furnishes you the news, while it's news, and by looking about you can readily see which of the newspapers will eventually be read by everybody in Rush county.

LEGISLATURE AT HALF-WAY MARK

Indications Now Conservative
Course Will Not be Abandoned
by Indiana General Assembly

IMPORTANT BILLS THIS WEEK

Direct Primary Legislation, Among Other Things, Scheduled to Make Trouble Very Soon.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., February 1.—With the Indiana legislature approaching the half-way mark of the session, there was no indication today that it would for some time, at least, abandon its conservative policy of killing bills right and left and passing the closely scrutinized few. This week will see the middle of the session. Probably fewer bills have been introduced and fewer acted upon favorably than in any session of recent years.

Three public hearings scheduled for senate committees this week will be important. They will consider the Yarling bill to create a commission to regulate private corporations; the Indianapolis finance (Mayor Bell) bill and Marion county police court bill, and workmen's compensation. A big fight is brewing on the Indianapolis finance bill and the one to create a second police court. Before the compensation bills come up, that of Commissioner Bullock, the compromise, will be in making three in all.

The house will take up the eugenic marriage measure which has passed the senate, and the Walsh railroad bill raising fares to 2 1/2 cents. The free ranch bill announced as killed can be resurrected, Representative Davis says, because the house neglected to consider a minority report. The ways and means committee was today to take up appropriation matters, probably continuing the economy policy.

The biggest thing that happened last week was the resignation of Senator Stephen B. Fleming, millionaire brewer of Fort Wayne and New York. Fleming and Governor Ralston have carefully left the impression that it did not mean a break between the two and Fleming's written statement was that he had to bolt or resign and chose the latter. His act closely followed favorable action by the senate on the anti lobby bill, which went to the governor last Friday and which was the "next biggest" thing of the week.

The direct primary is sure to become an issue this week with the arrival of Secretary of State Bryan and Senator Kern. The Jones-Rinear state-wide bill, which is understood to have Kern's sanction, has been kept in the background until he arrives. Governor Ralston did not ask for state-wide primary legislation, though such a plank is in the platform.

HIGH RECORDS SMASHED

May Wheat Soars to $1.56 1/2 Today in Chicago.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Feb. 1.—High price records for wheat for the season got another smashing today amid noisy scenes in the local pit. The price went to $1.57 per bushel for May, and to $1.38 1/2 for July wheat around noon. Wheat closed today at $1.56 1/2 and $1.37 1/2, which represented gains over today's opening for the big jump. Receipts were very small.

May wheat opened the month today at $1.54 per bushel. This was an advance of two and one-eighth cents over Saturday's closing price. July wheat was up to $1.35 7/8. Bad weather conditions were partly responsible for the big jump. Receipts were very small.

A RUSHVILLE MAN GIVES EVIDENCE

His Testimony Will Interest Every Rushville Reader.

The value of local evidence is indisputable. It is the kind of evidence we accept as true because we know we can prove it for ourselves. There has been plenty of such evidence in the Rushville papers lately, and this straightforward testimony has established a confidence in the minds of Rushville people that will not be easily shaken.

M. Conner, 1001 North Harrison street, Rushville, says: "I had backache and pains through my loins and my kidneys were irregular in action. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills, I used them. They stopped the pains and regulated the kidney action."

REAR END OVERHAUL

BRAKE RELINING

HOW DOES THE REAR AXLE OF YOUR CAR "SOUND" AND ACT? Is it noisy, loose and does it seem to "gather together" before the car moves, instead of acting noiselessly and as a single unit?

Every car's "rear end" should be overhauled once a year and the brakes should be relined—if you want to enjoy safe, "worry free" motoring and have brakes that HOLD.

Now is the time to have US do the work—here in a first class shop where ALL the work is done by skilled mechanics.

COUNTY AND CITY MAY HAVE A FUSS

Understood Commissioners Want to Know Why Rent is Not Paid For City Treasurer's Office.

METER PUT IN COURT HOUSE

The county and the city may yet get into an argument. The commissioners, it is understood, want to know why the city does not pay office rent for the room now occupied in the court house by the city treasurer's office. The argument started when the city placed the court house on the meter list for both water and light. The old plan was for the city to furnish the court house and jail light and water at a flat rate of about $1,200 a year but some time ago meters were installed.

The placing of meters in the court house did not rest very well with the commissioners, from all reports, and the county attorney has been instructed to look up the records to see if the city ever had a contract with the county for maintaining the treasurer's office in the court house. The county attorney has not yet investigated the records, but is understood that no such contract exists. The results may be that the city will have to find new offices or pay rent.

The commissioners at the regular session today allowed the usual claims.

FRANK CASE ADVANCED.

(By United Press.)

Washington Feb. 1.—Granting the motion of the attorney for Leo M. Frank convicted by a Georgia court for the murder of Mary Phagan the supreme court this afternoon announced it would advance the hearing of argument out of the regular order. The requests was concurred in by the Georgia attorneys. Argument was set for February 23.

FAIRVIEW WINS TWICE.

Fairview won twice in as many games at the Fairview hall last Friday night. The independent team defeated the Jersey City independents, by the score of 53 to 15. Vickery, a Fairview man, was the star of the game, with twenty-nine points to his credit. In the second game the Fairview high school defeated the Manilla high school five, 53 to 25.

MEETING POSTPONED.

The meeting of the Rush county fair board scheduled for this morning was postponed until one week from Tuesday. It was impossible to get a quorum present for the meeting today.

INFANT SISCO DEAD.

Charles Herbert Sisco, the six-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sisco, died this morning at the home of the parents, in West Second street. The funeral will be conducted Tuesday afternoon and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

WOMAN ALSO GUILTY.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Feb. 1.—A woman transported from state to state in violation of the Mann white slave law can be indicted by a co-conspirator with the man who transports her, the federal supreme court decided today. Justice Day and Lamar dissented.

The Royal Neighbors will have a call meeting Tuesday night and all members are urged to be present.

The county board of education held its regular monthly meeting today. Nothing of special importance came before the meeting. This was the second meeting of the new trustee.

The Rev. D. Ira Lambert pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has rented the O. E. Humes property, corner of Seventh and Harrison streets and will move here about Thursday.

Amusements

The Princess will show the five reel Shubert feature "Lola" for the program tonight. Clara K. Young is featured and the photo play is taken from the play of the same name by Owen Davis. The story of "Lola" is remarkable and tells something different. Was Lola to blame for the inexplicable change in her character or was she but the victim of some inscrutable fate. These are some of the questions that will be answered. Besides the big feature picture Miss Leona Thomas, the well known Arlington violinist will give a solo at each performance.

The Mystic will show a two reel feature "The Butterfly Wings" for the first picture tonight. Bessie Eyton is featured in this Selig drama and it is said to tell a story of intense interest. The other is a Kalem comedy entitled "The Cause of All the Trouble." Tomorrow night the feature picture "The Girl and the Explorer" will be shown. Tom Moore is shown in this one.

FREE ADVICE TO SICK WOMEN

Thousands Have Been Helped
By Common Sense
Suggestions.

Women suffering from any form of female ills are invited to communicate promptly with the woman's private correspondence department of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established a confidential correspondence which has extended over many years and which has never been broken. Never have they published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which they have to draw from, it is more than possible that they possess the very knowledge needed in your case. Nothing is asked in return except your good will, and their advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

A Plain Answer.

Replying to an attack of Paul Goodale, of Lafontaine, Ind., on James E. Watson of this city, in the Indianapolis Star, Arthur O. Main, of Indianapolis comes to the defense of Mr. Watson and praises him in the warmest terms, expressing, at the close, the hope that the Rushville statesman may be the next Republican candidate for president. Goodale was very bitter in his denunciatory language, but the latest contributor to the Star answers the scribe from Lafontaine in his own language in this fashion:

A gentleman with a name that sounds like something good to drink, who dares his communication to The Star from Lafontaine, the name of which town also savors of something in liquid form, takes occasion to ridicule Jim Watson as a presidential possibility.

Without intending any sarcasm, I will remark that this is the Jim Watson whom he has heard of before, and whom everybody else in the United States has heard of for that matter, and the same Jim Watson who was called to testify before the committee investigating the Mulhall lobby case, at Washington, two years ago. He is also the same Jim Watson who was vindicated, by this same committee, of any wrongful acts in connection with this Mulhall case. He is the same Jim Watson who has always advocated what he believed to be consistent with good, honest Republican principles, never losing sight for one moment of the people's rights and interests.

He is the same Jim Watson who has always been a prominent leader, and who, although reviled by some, has always been proved innocent of any wrongdoing in any of his operations. Any fair-minded man will agree that so long as those who would belittle him have nothing to back up their proof, that these people, such as our friend from the town with a name which would quench your thirst on a hot day, are evidently figuratively shying a brick at a private citizen, who for political reasons they do not wish to see receive proper credit for what he has done. It is also quite evident that Mr. Goodale, who has taken this slap at Mr. Watson, is far from being in sympathy with the Republican party and its doctrines.

Yes, Mr. Goodale, you are no doubt referring to the James E. Watson whom I have in mind, as the one whom I refer to, and the one you refer to; both hail from Rushville, Ind., but for your own enlightenment, I would suggest that you endeavor to get facts before assailing the good name of a private citizen, such as James E. Watson has been for the past several years, and that the next opportunity you have to attend an address such as was delivered by Mr. Watson here, on Friday the 15th instant, you avail yourself of this opportunity. I am sure that you would agree with me that it was delivered by a man whose intellect and character are too rich to make it possible for him to do the things which you refer to in your article of the 27th instant. Here's hoping that James E. Watson will be the next Republican candidate for president of the United States.

REMARKABLE CURE OF RHEUMATISM

"Dear Readers—For years I had suffered untold agonies with what was considered an incurable case of rheumatism. I had given every remedy I had hands upon a fair trial and had doctor after doctor treat me, without even receiving as much as temporary relief. At last, the new scientific prescription, Lloyd's kidney and rheumatism tablets, came to my notice. This preparation brought immediate relief and in two weeks I was absolutely cured. The cure has remained permanent, and I am very thankful. Sufferers—Take my advice and get a few 'Lloyd's Tablets' from your druggist today and be convinced of the curative qualities of this new prescription. Signed, Geo. W. Gearhart, 2359 Weaver St., Columbus, O. P. S. Editor—Please insert this letter in some prominent place in your paper using my name if you wish. G. W. G."

RATS!

Patricia is her name.

To Will Cook's barn she came.
She is a perfect lady cat,
A purry fit to love and pat.

She follows Will from door to door;
She brings him kittens by the score.

For eggs he thrusts his hands in nests,
On baby cat's heads they will rest.

In summer when boys sleep in tents,
Patricia comes with wise intent.
She knows what that cat is for,
A nest for just eight kittens more.

Patricia every rat will get
And even hunts where traps are set

One morning Will came to the barn
And found his trap on pussy's arm.

Now who would do this kitty harm!
He took the trap from her poor arm,
The broken bone with care he set
And gently watched his furry pet.

Patricia was just six weeks lame,
But now her foot is just the same.
She follows Will from door to door
And catches more rats than before.

Persons who read in the Daily Republican one day last week the story of how William Cook, corner of Main and Tenth streets, nursed a cat back to life will recall that he set the cat's broken leg and that it is as well as before the accident.

Patricia is truly a wonderful cat. It seems that she was formerly a pet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rosencrance, a companion cat to Caesar. One day Caesar departed and Patricia had full sway of the household. Then Caesar, after a long absence reappeared, and felt that he would have the same place he had always had held in the home. Patricia thought differently. She gave Caesar a good boxing and departed, taking up her abode at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Cook. And that's the story of how Mr. Cook came by Patricia.

Persons who read in the Daily Republican one day last week the story of how William Cook, corner of Main and Tenth streets, nursed a cat back to life will recall that he set the cat's broken leg and that it is as well as before the accident.

THIRD DEGREE TO BE CONFERRED ON 19

Staff of Franklin Lodge No. 35 I. O.

O. F., Preparing to do Work in Spectacular Form.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR HERE

Franklin lodge No. 35, I. O. O. F. will confer the third degree in spectacular form for the first time in this city, and attempted by few lodges anywhere, Wednesday night. The staff, composed of thirty members, has been rehearsing under the direction of John Likenbroch of Indianapolis for the last three weeks. Time and expense have not been spared in preparation for the degree. There will be special music and full orchestral accompaniment for the work.

Mr. Likenbroch is an instructor of national reputation, having won prizes with his entries in many parts of the United States, some of which scored percentages which were never equaled before and have never been equaled since. After the work, at which the degree will be conferred on nineteen candidates, an oyster supper will be served in the dining room adjoining.

KAISER'S FRESH TROOPS REPULSED

Brilliant Bayonet Charges by Allies
Unnerve Newcomers, Paris Statement Says Today

THEY GET BAPTISM OF FIRE

(By United Press.)

Paris, Feb. 1.—The kaiser's fresh troops have been hurled into action near Ypres and have been thrown back with severe losses. Bayonet attacks unnerved the new regiments and they retreated in disorder.

Official dispatches claimed destruction of German trenches by French artillery at several points along the Aisne and the capture of German positions west of Soissons. German reinforcements received their baptism of fire in a charge against the French positions southeast of Ypres. A daylight attack was ordered. The Germans advanced doublequick upon the French trenches. Their lines wavered under hot machinegun fire and they broke and fled in disorder when the allied soldiers leaped from their trenches in a brilliant bayonet charge.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. BOXING TEAS ARE FAILURE

One Club Made Bid for Women Patronage and Only One Showed Up, She Being a Reporter

PRETTY TOUGH ON PROMOTER

Naming of John Rush as Coach at Princeton Causes Surprise, Especially With Grads

BY HAL SHERRIDAN
(Written for United Press.)

New York, Feb. 1.—Boxing teas for women simply don't go around these parts. The gentler sex that makes its way ohme via the New York subway is willing to tackle other things Parisian but when it comes to watching two huskies maul each other around the ring—well, that's another story.

John Weismantel, who runs the Broadway Sporting club in Brooklyn made the bid for the women fight fans. John advertised that he would put on a weekly tea party, with boxing strictly on the side. After thorough press-agenting John threw open the club for the first affair at which he promised feminine boxing enthusiasts would gather. It was pretty tough on John. There were plenty of "gents" in their shirt-sleeves, who chewed gum because John admonished them not to smoke in the presence of "ladies," but there was only one "lady" present. She confessed that she was sent over the bridge by a New York paper.

Princeton graduates and undergraduates are expressing some surprise at the naming of John H. Rush of Cleveland as head coach of the Tiger football team. Rush had held the Princeton record for the 100-yards—9 4/5—while he was in school but took his football on the sidelines. Some of the Princetonians, however, are pointing out that Bob Zappke, the most brilliant coach the 1914 season produced in the west, was not a better man in football when he attended Wisconsin university.

Poughkeepsie may take on all the aspects of Henley in the English regatta season as the results of the change in the rowing program to be come effective at this year's race. Instead of bunching the freshmen, junior and varsity races in the afternoon as in the past, the two minor events will be rowed in the morning. There were some critics who were of the opinion that this would reduce the size of the crowds. The belief expressed here now is that the arrival of crowds in Poughkeepsie on the night before the big races, the mingling of old friends and the opportunity of making the hike up the river a sort of vacation will transform what formerly was only an afternoon's outing into a real sporting event.

comes acquainted with other families. She visits when there is no sickness in the family and these constitute her social service calls.

Miss Moore works to have a good influence on those with whom she comes in touch during her daily routine and to uplift living conditions generally. To this extent, largely, her work is educational in persons who will be seen by the canvassers are asked to subscribe any sum they feel that they can give to help this cause along and they may pay it at their convenience. It is stated that there are probably a number of persons who would like to help and who may not be seen. They are requested to send or give their donations to any minister or to Miss Anna Bohannon, who is treasurer of the Rush County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, at the Rushville National bank.

home was a step in the right direction that led to moral and spiritual betterment as well.

First Baptist

Concerning the visiting nurse, the Rev. S. G. Huntington spoke briefly as follows at the First Baptist church Sunday morning:

"Since about the middle of August the Anti-Tuberculosis Society of Rush county, of which Dr. W. S. Coleman is president, has been doing a splendid work in Rushville and vicinity. A visiting nurse has been employed during this period and hundreds of professional visits have been made by her, scores of treatments given and much valuable instruction imparted to those who otherwise could not thus have been assisted. In some instances lives have been saved.

"Doubtless there are those who are only slightly, if at all, acquainted with these facts. As is well known, there is no more fatal disease than tuberculosis. Of the seventy-two deaths in Rushville last year, twelve were due to this dreaded disease. Almost one to six, a very high rate, but it well illustrates the fatal character of this awful plague. The work of the visiting nurse is invaluable to our city and county. Her expense until this present time has been borne exclusively by a few interested friends and the sale of Red Cross seals. It requires nearly one thousand dollars to maintain this line of work among us for one year. The only means of securing this fund is by popular subscription and free will offerings. Considering the great good accomplished by this means of combating the worst of all diseases and also helping the less fortunate, great liberality ought to be expressed in contributing toward its support. Rushville certainly needs and cannot afford to dispense with the services of the visiting nurse.

United Presbyterian

The Rev. A. W. Jamieson's mention of the visiting nurse campaign fitted in nicely with his sermon Sunday morning on the subject, "The Great Physician," taken from the text, Jer. 8:22: "Is there no balm in Gilead; is there no physician there?" Concerning the visiting nurse, in conclusion, he said:

"We are glad for the work that is being done by Miss Moore, our visiting nurse, in Rushville. She enters the homes of our city as an angel of mercy. She gives freely of the benefits of her education and experience for the restoring of the sick, safeguarding others from contagion or infection improving sanitary and living conditions. Her work is not distinctly religious, but improved physical conditions is a step towards improved moral and spiritual conditions. Miss Moore is supported by the free will offerings of the people, and we believe it is one of the best investment ever made for the welfare of our city. Jesus longs to heal the sin-sickness of every soul, that not death but life, and life eternal may be the portion of every man, of every woman."

"The prophet is lamenting for his people. He longs for a physician with a remedy, who would be able to heal their hurt. We find such a physician in Jesus Christ, who referred to His work in these words, 'The well have no need of a physician, but the sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.' The healing balm in His wonderful grace, all-sufficient for every person, and for every ill. He cares for the body, the house in which the man lives, but more precious truth; He is able to make well the man who lives within the body. He it is 'Who forgives all thy transgressions, Thy disease all who heal.'"

"The Christian like the little child in the home, ought to develop normally. He is born into the family of God. He is expected to 'Grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.' There is the 'Sincere milk of the word' for babes in Christ, and there is the 'Strong meat' for those who are able to bear it. John, in his first epistle, addresses 'Little children' 'Young men' and 'Fathers'. Certain duties and privileges belong to all, to the child Samuel, as well as to the aged Eli. Power for all service comes from above, Acts 1:8 'Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you.' Faith is the trolley arm that reaches up, and connects us with the source of power above us, while we allow that power to be manifested in us, and through us. God looks after the upper contact, while we must look after this end of the connection.

"A diseased soul interferes with the working of that power. In this day, as in the apostle's day 1 Cor. 11:30 'Many are weak and sickly.' What does Jesus do with His weak and sickly children? He pleads with them to return unto Him, and He promises to heal them. When here in person, He wrought marvelous cures of the body that people might be blessed and trust Him for the healing of the soul. He prescribes the treatment for every sin-sick soul.

"Today, we are to represent the Master in a needy world. The body is not the all-important thing. The is of infinite value. But the soul is reached, oftentimes, through the body. In foreign fields, we have our medical missionaries and hospitals. Dr. Henry, of Greensburg, has done a wonderful work in Assiout, Egypt. Our good friend, Miss Emma Minger of the First church, Indianapolis, has just laid down her life, in this work, in India."

FINAL CHARGE WILL BE FIZZLE

chief of which that the city is worse off without saloons than with them. Always remember that the 'wet' argument, no matter how plausible it may appear on the surface, is illogical, self-contradictory and suicidal, and everlasting with an ulterior motive behind it.

e huff auf sag shrgs fxiS pu

"Yes," we are our brother's keeper and if there is another time above another when we ought to sense the fact, it is now when that vicious and horny-headed monster, the licensed saloon, is endeavoring to fasten its unholy and bloody fingers upon the homes, the young manhood, the young womanhood, the children and all that is honorable and decent within our fair city and drag it down to hell. At all hazards let us keep the saloon out of Rushville."

St. Paul's M. E.

Last night at the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church the pulpit was filled by the Rev. L. W. Snyder of Philadelphia. Mr. Snyder whose mission in life is to serve and help all the boys he can come in touch with, selected for his text, Mat. 25: 40. 'In as much as ye done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.'

During the delivery of the sermon he gave the saloon some telling blows. He related how he brought a saloon keeper to Christ in Idaho. He visited this man in his place of business at the request of others. When the man saw him enter he said: "I am ashamed of the business I am in." Mr. Snyder replied: "You are better than your business, and I advise that you get into some other business." This man, he said, acted on the suggestion and soon was engaged in a business which gave him the respect and confidence of the community. He said we were not fighting men individually when we were fighting against the saloon, but against a very bad business.

"Don't go into a saloon or into a pool room, boys," he added. "In these places," he continued, "boys and men not only learn how to loaf and to fall into evil ways." He said he hoped that Rushville would remain as 'dry' as it is. He thought that no greater calamity could happen to the city than for the saloons to be returned. He was interested in the community primarily because there were boys in it, and because his life work was a mission to boys. Since this was true he was against the saloon because it was a very bad thing for boys.

He concluded his remarks upon this part of the sermon by saying that after the city is voted 'dry' the law should be enforced. "It's up to you men to see that this is done," he said. He said the church could not do this alone. The good citizens would have to interest themselves in it and insist that this lawless business should not defeat them in their purpose to have a "dry" city.

TALKS TO PUPILS ON "EFFICIENCY"

Dr. Leonard W. Snyder is heartily
Received at the High School
This Morning.

ABOUT 300 IN THE AUDIENCE

Dr. Leonard W. Snyder, of Philadelphia, known as "The Boys Minister," addressed the pupils of the seventh and eighth grades and the high school in the Graham school assembly room this morning on the subject, "Efficiency." There were about 300 in the audience and they enjoyed the address immensely. Dr. Snyder held the attention of the pupils through the address, which was full of inspirations. He was given a fine reception when he appeared. Dr. Snyder outlined the subject under three heads. He said the first step in being efficient was to perform one's duty. He declared that doing one's duty was not simply doing the things assigned, but doing all the things that it was thought needed to be done. Responsibility, he said, has an important bearing on efficiency. He urged the pupils to be brave and meet all responsibilities well. The third important step in efficiency, Dr. Snyder asserted, was preparing for the future. He told the pupils they were not preparing for the future unless they did more than was required of them. If any one holds a position, he declared in closing, its value does not lie in the possession of it, but the opportunities it affords for preparing for the future.

Mrs. William Cochran, 45 years old, died Sunday at noon at her home in Orange following a long illness from tuberculosis. Mrs. Cochran had been in a critical condition for some time and her death was expected. She was a well known woman and was a member of the Christian church. Besides her husband she is survived by two sons and two daughters. The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock in the Orange Christian church and burial will take place in the cemetery north of Orange.

COTTON LOAN POOL EXPIRES TODAY

Last Day for Applications for Loans
From Big National Bank Fund.
Small Amount Out

DONE UNDER RESERVE BOARD

(By United Press.)
Washington, Feb. 1.—Benefits of the federal "cotton loan pool" expire today. This is the last day for applications for loans from the $135,000,000 fund voluntarily pooled by national banks. The federal reserve board decided that it was unfair to the banks to have money tied up awaiting cotton loan applications longer than today, believing that all cotton growers, warehouses or brokers hit by the war have had time to ask and receive money from the pooled funds by this time.

The federal reserve board which had in its unofficial capacity as the central committee to handle the cotton loan fund subscribed by all national banks, thinks the situation is now well in hand. Only a comparative small part of the $135,000,000 subscribed has been loaned out.

from a flood. Rain or snow is also forecast for tonight.

Frozen down spouts and eave troughs caused considerable trouble at the Graham school building yesterday. The water poured over the side of the building and damaged the gymnasium and assembly room and two other grade rooms.

The new school building was given a severe test yesterday but not a single leak was found. The system of drainage is said to be perfect and the down spout go inside the building and are thus prevented from freezing.

There was also a leak in the Knights of Pythias building yesterday but fortunately little damage was done. The water came in through that part of the roof which covered the property room. There was linoleum on the floor. Some property of the Uniform Rank was slightly damaged.

CAMPAIGN TO RETAIN VISITING NURSE IS STARTED HERE TODAY

CANVASSERS WILL DEVOTE WEEK TO IT

Expect to Call on Many Persons and Ask Them to Subscribe Any Sum For Worthy Cause.

MARY MOORE PRESENT NURSE

During Work Since August 17, 1915,
She Has Made 1,363 Social
Service and Nursing Calls.

This week will be devoted to a campaign, which opened today, to retain Miss Mary Moore as visiting nurse here. The campaign is being conducted under the auspices of the Rush County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. A number of Rushville men have enlisted to help raise enough money to make a visiting nurse permanent here, and prominent among them are the physicians.

It is stated that something like nine hundred dollars will be needed to keep Miss Moore here. Small slips have been printed and are being circulated today. Those who desire to aid the cause may place the sum they will give on the slip and may pay it at their convenience. It

A meeting of the canvassers will be held at the office of Dr. W. C. Coleman, president of the county society, Wednesday evening, at which time reports will be made and it will be determined then with just how much success the campaign is meeting.

Miss Moore has been here as visiting nurse since August 17, 1915, and during that time she has accomplished a wonderful good. Numerous examples may be found where the visiting nurse has been the salvation of a family in distress because of illness and improper care.

During the time that she has been here, Miss Moore has made thirteen hundred and sixty-three calls. That is an average of ten calls a day. These are classed as nursing visits and social visits. Of the former she has made seven hundred and eighty and of the latter, five hundred and eighty-three.

Miss Moore's work is divided primarily into three parts. In the first place, she is employed by the county anti-tuberculosis society and watches closely the cases of tuberculosis in the county. This part of her work includes the county, to a great extent. Although she can not keep in close touch with cases in remote parts of the county, she goes wherever she is called.

In the second place, she looks after all kinds of sickness among people who are in such circumstances that they can not afford to employ a nurse.

In the third place she cares for a number of chronic cases of sickness, persons who are bed-ridden and helpless.

One of the finest services Miss Moore performs is teaching people in their homes how to care for the sick—how to handle contagious diseases to prevent other members of the family from becoming infected. Some of her best work has been done among sick babies. The lives of a number of infants have been saved through her service.

Once called into a home to render service as a nurse, Miss Moore always has access there and keeps in touch with the family. Through acquaintances thus gained she has

COMMENTED ON BY MINISTERS OF CITY

They Agree That Project is Best Investment People of the City Could Possibly Make.

HER SERVICES INVALUABLE

Point Out That Improving Physical Conditions is Step Toward Improved Moral Conditions.

Ministers of the city yesterday commented, during the course of their regular sermons, on the visiting nurse campaign which opened today. They were all agreed that the support of the visiting nurse project was the best investment the city could make because improved physical conditions are but a stepping stone to better moral and spiritual conditions. In the following brief comments, the ministers discussed the plan:

Main Street Christian

The Rev. C. M. Yocum spoke briefly Sunday morning concerning the effort which will be made this week to keep a visiting nurse here. He said:

"Miss Mary J. Moore should be kept at work as visiting nurse in Rushville. She is doing the best piece of social service and uplift work that has been done in Rushville in years. Her work of education and prevention and care in homes of tuberculosis patients alone is paying rich dividends. Her service in other homes where the presence of a trained nurse is precluded because of financial reasons is a God-send. The character of her service gives her access to homes where not only her work as nurse is invaluable but where instruction in cleanliness and sanitation can also be given and where the laws of better living can be instilled. The field for constructive suggestion in the homes of young people whose education in the vital things of life have been neglected is almost limitless.

"Miss Moore's work is not only valuable to those who are fortunate enough to be her patients but by her general standard of living is raised and by reaction all those living in the city are blessed. If she never has occasion to call in your home, your home never-the-less is blessed because she visits in the home of your neighbor. The man who won't help his neighbor keep his garden clear of weeds will soon have weeds in his own garden.

"Miss Moore's work is the spirit of Christianity personified: the crystallization to do a piece of charity work that you can confidently know will bear fruit. Then help this cause."

St. Paul's M. E.

At the morning service at the St. Paul's M. E. church yesterday, the Rev. A. D. Batchelor spoke briefly of the plan to keep a visiting nurse here. He praised the project with vigor and urged that it be given the support that it deserved. He called attention to the fact that whether the visiting nurse was retained depended entirely upon the generosity of the people.

The Rev. Mr. Batchelor pointed to the excellent work the visiting nurse had done and could do if she were given proper support. He recalled that the betterment of living conditions and the uplifting of the

LEAKING ROOFS CAUSE DAMAGE

Several Merchants Suffer Loss
When Snow on Buildings Melts
Suddenly From Rainfall.

WALKING VERY BAD SUNDAY

Gutters Are Cleaned Today So Crossings Are Passable Once More
—Colder Tonight is Word.

The heavy snow going off with the rain yesterday resulted in severe damage to several business houses from leaky roofs. The rain melting the snow made too much water for the down spouts to carry off and in many instances the down spouts were filled with ice. The natural result was the water banked on the roofs and finally leaked through.

The slush on the sidewalks and in the streets made travel very difficult. For a time it was thought there was danger of a flood but the river did not get out of its banks. The heavy covering of snow protected the ground which was not frozen over two or three inches and most of the water was absorbed instead of staying on the surface. The ground was very dry and could stand a large amount of water.

F. B. Johnson and Company druggists, probably suffered the heaviest loss of any of the merchants. The water fairly poured in the rear of the store and damaged between 2,500 and 3,000 rolls of wall paper. About one-half of one section of the wall paper department was damaged. The exact damage could not be determined as the paper will be allowed to dry in the bins before an invoice is made. Every roll of paper that the water hit is spoiled as it is spotted.

The water flowed from the roof of the building occupied by the Johnson drug store over on to the building south and Frank Wilson sustained a damage before the leak was discovered. Several suit cases and traveling bags were spotted by water. Damage resulted on the second floor as well as on the first but it was confined to the front of the building.

Damage was also done at the Mauzy Company store and at the T. W. Betker store. The roof at the Mauzy Company store began to leak in several places early Sunday morning and men were immediately put to work getting the snow and slush off the roof and a greater loss was prevented. The water poured in the Betker store from around the skylight. Many residences were also damaged and roofs seemed to leak in places where they never had before. The roof of the new Masonic temple sprung a leak last week and the frescoing in the reception room was damaged.

The south wall at the Hiner livery barn gave way yesterday and practically every brick fell out of place. The building did not collapse because there was a board wall inside the building. The wall had been expected to let go for some time because the bricks were barely held in place.

Street Commissioner Will Havens was busy today cleaning out the gutters with the big street scraper so that the water could get an outlet. So many crossings were impassable yesterday because the slush piled up and prevented the water from running off. The gutters in the downtown district were cleaned out after the snow fell so that the conditions there were not so bad.

Colder weather is expected tonight to stop the sudden thaw so that there will be absolutely no danger

DRAIN CASE IS BEFORE COURT

Judge Sparks Hears Petition of
Voorhees and Nora Cavitt and
Others to Make Repairs.

REMONSTRATORS FIGHT IT

Court Revises Calendar and Sets
Down Cases For Next Five
Weeks—Many as 7 in a Day.

Judge Sparks heard the petition of Voorhees Cavitt, Nora Cavitt and others, to repair a drain, today in the circuit court. The drain, known as the Lilly Cavitt ditch, is in Jackson township and the land for miles around is affected. The case attracted no end of attention. The petitioners are attempting to show the court that the cost, damages and expenses of effecting the proposed drain will be less than the benefits.

Witnesses were introduced to tell the benefits the farms through which the drain runs will receive. Witnesses stated that the Cavitts and would be benefited from $5 to $10 an acre and that the Hal Green land would be benefited anywhere from $3 to $7.50 an acre. The William Newkirk land, according to witnesses, would be benefited by the drain from $2 to $5 an acre.

Several remonstrances have been filed against the proposed improvement. Arthur E. Kirk, et al., Leonard Wewer, and James and Mary Travis have filed remonstrances and are fighting the case in court. The case was not expected to be completed today.

Judge Sparks has revised the court calendar and has made out a new one for the first five weeks of the February term. The trial calendar is very heavy and some of the oldest cases are expected to be taken from the docket this term. As high as seven cases in one day are set for trial. The calendar is as follows:

- Feb. 1.—Cavitt drain.
- Feb. 2.—Walker vs. Ideal Husker Company.
- Feb. 4.—Cavitt vs. Kirkpatrick, executor.
- Feb. 5.—Warner Instrument Company vs. Moore.

FINAL CHARGE WILL BE FIZZLE

Rev. S. G. Huntington Says Ammunition of "Wets" in This Campaign is all Very Damp.

TALKS OF COMING ELECTION

Declares That Fact That Saloon is Vicious Enemy to Society is Already Established.

Although the "wets" have been on the job for months preparing for the expected "wet" and "dry" election here, a careful examination of their works will reveal that nerve-wrecked men are behind the guns, that admittedly their ammunition is all wet and that their efforts to deliver a deadly fire in the final charge will prove a fizzle, according to the Rev. S. G. Huntington, who preached at the First Baptist church last night on the subject, "Am I My Brother's Keeper?"

"We haven't time to generalize so much on the issue before us," he declared at the outset. "The fact that the saloon is a vicious enemy to society is too well established already in the minds of most people, though some are loathe to admit it, to require lengthy arguments along that line.

"The question is, will the 'drys' get busy and keep the saloons out of Rushville if an election is called, as now seems certain from the action of the 'wets'? It is high time to begin counting noses. There is no neutral ground on this question. We are either 'wet' or 'dry.' With rare exceptions, count the neutral man 'wet' every time, for were he 'dry,' there are but few reasons, if any, that would prevent him from declaring his position. As well talk of being neutral when your neighbor's house is on fire and burning down over the heads of its inmates. A man is either willing that the house and inmates should be burned or else he will show his heroism, sound the alarm and do his level best to rescue those in peril. Human sympathy and the ties of brotherhood would demand that he act unhesitatingly in behalf of his neighbor.

"It is only logical that the churches of this city should take an active part in the fight. And certainly the church member is to be pitied who falters or in any way gives his influence to the enemy at this time or at any other time. Christ said: 'He that is not with me is against me,' and again, 'Ye can not serve God and Mammon.'

"We need to be aroused to the seriousness of the situation. There is no use to try to minimize conditions although victory is just as certain as an election is held, providing the 'drys' roll up their sleeves and go at the job like they meant it. There is a bigger 'dry' sentiment in Rushville than 'wet' and it is up to the 'drys' to express definitely their sentiment in an organization and at the polls.

"Of course, the 'wets' have their trenches all dug and their guns in position. They have been on the job for months past. But listen, a careful examination of their works reveals the fact that nerve-wrecked men are behind the guns, that admittedly their ammunition is all wet, and that their efforts, therefore, to deliver a deadly fire in the final charge will prove a fizzle.

"However, they are making a bold stand and are trying hard to recruit their ranks, resorting to subterfuge and every means imaginable that it is peculiar to the saloon custom to do. But do not be either deceived or alarmed by their bold arguments,

OVERRULES THE 27 DEMURRERS

Judge Anderson Holds Attack of 27
Terre Haute Defendants on Jurisdiction Are Groundless

115 MUST STAND TRIAL NOW

Holds Right to Vote For U. S. Senators and Representative is Secured by Constitution.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 1.—Judge A. B. Anderson in the United States court for the Indiana district today overruled the demurrers of twenty-seven defendants in the cases charging conspiracy to defraud the government. The jurisdiction of the court was attacked.

As a result of today's ruling 115 Terre Haute politicians must stand trial here. Of these eighty-three have pleaded guilty and five not guilty. Mayor Donn M. Roberts, Circuit Judge Eli Redman and Sheriff Dennis Shea are most prominent of these. With them are most of the Terre Haute official family.

The court upheld the theory that a conspiracy to violate the state law adopted by the United States for the election of United States senators is an offense against the United States. The indictment was upheld in every particular. Following the ruling the twenty-six who demurred pleaded not guilty. The cases of 115 defendants was set for March 8.

Judge Anderson held that the right to vote for United States senator and for the district representatives in congress is a right secured by the constitution and the laws of the United States and that the rights to serve on boards of such elections also is a constitutional right. The first count of the indictment was based on that theory.

The first count charged that a conspiracy existed to prevent qualified voters from sitting on election boards and from voting for the congressman.

SENATOR SMITH RESUMES SPEECH

Call Democrats "Treasury Looters" and Says Fitzgerald "Turned State's Evidence."

FILIBUSTER STARTS AGAIN

(By United Press.)

Washington, Feb. 1.—After a week end truce, Republican filibuster against the ship purchase bill went into action anew at ten a. m. today. Both sides claimed ultimate victory.

Senator Smith of Michigan resumed the filibuster against the ship purchase bill when the senate convened following his speech of over six hours Saturday night.

"Treasury looters" was one phrase Smith applied to the Democratic party. He said Chairman Fitzgerald of the house appropriation committee himself a Democrat, "had turned state's evidence" against the majority party by criticizing lavish appropriations as a "horrible mess."

"Carranza ordered the American troops out of Mexico," was another of Smith's assertions.

Miss Nelle Geraghty has accepted a position in the suit and cloak department at the Mauzy Company.

$3000.00 FIRE PREVENTED

Read This Letter:
"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect. Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

SUBSCRIBING FOR A NEWSPAPER?

Several Things to be Considered Before Giving up Your Money.

For News.

GET NEWS WHILE ITS NEWS

If your home is not receiving one of the county newspapers and you are considering subscribing for one of them—be sure that you investigate the manner in which the newspapers gather their news. Get the newspaper that gives you the news, while it is news. The subscription price of a newspaper is a small item if they deliver the news fresh every day—a dollar paper that gives you the news two and three days old, news that has been copied from the other home papers, is fooling you in the attempt to make you think that it is a newspaper, and is expensive at the price. Comparison will quickly show you which paper furnishes you the news, while it's news, and by looking about you can readily see which of the newspapers will eventually be read by everybody in Rush county.

LEGISLATURE AT HALF-WAY MARK

Indications Now Conservative
Course Will Not be Abandoned
by Indiana General Assembly

IMPORTANT BILLS THIS WEEK

Direct Primary Legislation, Among

Other Things, Scheduled to Make Trouble Very Soon.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., February 1.—With the Indiana legislature approaching the half-way mark of the session, there was no indication today that it would for some time, at least, abandon its conservative policy of killing bills right and left and passing the closely scrutinized few. This week will see the middle of the session. Probably fewer bills have been introduced and fewer acted upon favorably than in any session of recent years.

Three public hearings scheduled for senate committees this week will be important. They will consider the Yarding bill to create a commission to regulate private corporations; the Indianapolis finance (Mayor Bell) bill and Marion county police court bill, and workmen's compensation. A big fight is brewing on the Indianapolis finance bill and the one to create a second police court. Before the compensation bills come up, that of Commissioner Bullock, the compromise, will be in making three in all.

The house will take up the eugenic marriage measure which has passed the senate, and the Walsh railroad bill raising fares to 2 1/2 cents. The free ranch bill announced as killed can be resurrected. Representative Davis says, because the house neglected to consider a minority report. The ways and means committee was today to take up appropriation matters, probably continuing the economy policy.

The biggest thing that happened last week was the resignation of Senator Stephen B. Fleming, millionaire brewer of Fort Wayne and New York. Fleming and Governor Ralston have carefully left the impression that it did not mean a break between the two and Fleming's written statement was that he had to bolt or resign and chose the latter. His act closely followed favorable action by the senate on the anti lobby bill, which went to the governor last Friday and which was the "next biggest" thing of the week.

The direct primary is sure to become an issue this week with the arrival of Secretary of State Bryan and Senator Kern. The Jones-Rinear state-wide bill, which is understood to have Kern's sanction, has been kept in the background until he arrives. Governor Ralston did not ask for state-wide primary legislation, though such a plank is in the platform.

HIGH RECORDS SMASHED

May Wheat Soars to $1.56 1/2 Today in Chicago.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Feb. 1.—High price records for wheat for the season got another smashing today amid noisy scenes in the local pit. The price went to $1.57 per bushel for May, and to $1.38 1/2 for July wheat around noon. Wheat closed today at $1.56 1/2 and $1.37 1/2, which represented gains over today's opening for the big jump. Receipts were very small.

May wheat opened the month today at $1.54 per bushel. This was an advance of two and one-eighth cents over Saturday's closing price. July wheat was up to $1.35 7/8. Bad weather conditions were partly responsible for the big jump. Receipts were very small.

A RUSHVILLE MAN GIVES EVIDENCE

His Testimony Will Interest Every Rushville Reader.

The value of local evidence is indisputable. It is the kind of evidence we accept as true because we know we can prove it for ourselves. There has been plenty of such evidence in the Rushville papers lately, and this straightforward testimony has established a confidence in the minds of Rushville people that will not be easily shaken.

M. Conner, 1001 North Harrison street, Rushville, says: "I had backache and pains through my loins and my kidneys were irregular in action. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills, I used them. They stopped the pains and regulated the kidney action."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Conner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

REAR END OVERHAUL

HOW DOES THE REAR AXLE OF YOUR CAR "SOUND" AND ACT?

Is it noisy, loose and does it seem to "gather together" before the car moves, instead of acting noiselessly and as a single unit?

Every car's "rear end" should be overhauled once a year and the brakes should be relined—if you want to enjoy safe, "worry free" motoring and have brakes that HOLD.

Now is the time to have US do the work—here in a first class shop where ALL the work is done by skilled mechanics.

Our Charges are Moderate.

COUNTY AND CITY MAY HAVE A FUSS

Understood Commissioners Want to Know Why Rent is Not Paid For City Treasurer's Office.

METER PUT IN COURT HOUSE

The county and the city may yet get into an argument. The commissioners, it is understood, want to know why the city does not pay office rent for the room now occupied in the court house by the city treasurer's office. The argument started when the city placed the court house on the meter list for both water and light. The old plan was for the city to furnish the court house and jail light and water at a flat rate of about $1,200 a year but some time ago meters were installed.

The placing of meters in the court house did not rest very well with the commissioners, from all reports, and the county attorney has been instructed to look up the records to see if the city ever had a contract with the county for maintaining the treasurer's office in the court house. The county attorney has not yet investigated the records, but is understood that no such contract exists. The results may be that the city will have to find new offices or pay rent.

The commissioners at the regular session today allowed the usual claims.

FRANK CASE ADVANCED.

(By United Press.)
 Washington Feb. 1.—Granting the motion of the attorney for Leo M. Frank convicted by a Georgia court for the murder of Mary Phagan the supreme court this afternoon announced it would advance the hearing of argument out of the regular order. The requests was concurred in by the Georgia attorneys. Argument was set for February 23.

FAIRVIEW WINS TWICE.

Fairview won twice in as many games at the Fairview hall last Friday night. The independent team defeated the Jersey City independents by the score of 53 to 15. Vickery, a Fairview man, was the star of the game, with twenty-nine points to his credit. In the second game the Fairview high school defeated the Manilla high school five, 53 to 25.

MEETING POSTPONED.

The meeting of the Rush county fair board scheduled for this morning was postponed until one week from Tuesday. It was impossible to get a quorum present for the meeting today.

INFANT SISCO DEAD.

Charles Herbert Sisco, the six-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sisco, died this morning at the home of the parents, in West Second street. The funeral will be conducted Tuesday afternoon and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

WOMAN ALSO GUILTY.

(By United Press.)
 Washington, Feb. 1.—A woman transported from state to state in violation of the Mann white slave law can be indicted by a co-conspirator with the man who transports her, the federal supreme court decided today. Justice Day and Lamar dissented.

The Royal Neighbors will have a call meeting Tuesday night and all members are urged to be present.

The county board of education held its regular monthly meeting today. Nothing of special importance came before the meeting. This was the second meeting of the new trustees.

Amusements

The Princess will show the five reel Shubert feature "Lola" for the program tonight. Clara K. Young is featured and the photo play is taken from the play of the same name by Owen Davis. The story of "Lola" is remarkable and tells something different. Was Lola to blame for the inexplicable change in her character or was she but the victim of some inscrutable fate. These are some of the questions that will be answered. Besides the big feature picture Miss Leona Thomas, the well known Arlington violinist will give a solo at each performance.

The Mystic will show a two reel feature "The Butterfly Wings" for the first picture tonight. Bessie Eytton is featured in this Selig drama and it is said to tell a story of intense interest. The other is a Kalem comedy entitled "The Cause of All the Trouble." Tomorrow night the feature picture "The Girl and the Explorer" will be shown. Tom Moore is shown in this one.

The Gem offers a two reel Victor drama "For the People" for the first picture tonight. Matt Moore and Dorothy Phillips are shown. Ex-Governor Cox, of Ohio is shown in this picture and the scenes are laid in Columbus, Ohio. The other picture is a Joker comedy "His Night Out." Ernest Shields and Betty Schade are featured. Tomorrow night the third installment of "The Master Key" will be shown.

FREE ADVICE TO SICK WOMEN

Thousands Have Been Helped
By Common Sense
Suggestions.

Women suffering from any form of female ills are invited to communicate promptly with the woman's private correspondence department of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established a confidential correspondence which has extended over many years and which has never been broken. Never have they published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which they have to draw from, it is more than possible that they possess the very knowledge needed in your case. Nothing is asked in return except your good will, and their advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

A Plain Answer.

Replying to an attack of Paul Goodale, of LaFontaine, Ind., on James E. Watson of this city, in the Indianapolis Star, Arthur O. Main, of Indianapolis comes to the defense of Mr. Watson and praises him in the warmest terms, expressing, at the close, the hope that the Rushville statesman may be the next Republican candidate for president. Goodale was very bitter in his denunciatory language, but the latest contributor to the Star answers the scribe from LaFontaine in his own language in this fashion:

A gentleman with a name that sounds like something good to drink, who dares his communication to The Star from LaFontaine, the name of which town also savors of something in liquid form, takes occasion to ridicule Jim Watson as a presidential possibility.

Without intending any sarcasm, I will remark that this is the Jim Watson whom he has heard of before, and whom everybody else in the United States has heard of for that matter, and the same Jim Watson who was called to testify before the committee investigating the Mulhall lobby case, at Washington, two years ago. He is also the same Jim Watson who was vindicated, by this same committee, of any wrongful acts in connection with this Mulhall case. He is the same Jim Watson who has always advocated what he believed to be consistent with good, honest Republican principles, never losing sight for one moment of the people's rights and interests.

He is the same Jim Watson who has always been a prominent leader, and who, although reviled by some, has always been proved innocent of any wrongdoing in any of his operations. Any fair-minded man will agree that so long as those who would belittle him have nothing to back up their proof, that these people, such as our friend from the town with a name which would quench your thirst on a hot day, are evidently figuratively shying a brick at a private citizen, who for political reasons they do not wish to see receive proper credit for what he has done. It is also quite evident that Mr. Goodale, who has taken this slap at Mr. Watson, is far from being in sympathy with the Republican party and its doctrines.

Yes, Mr. Goodale, you are no doubt referring to the James E. Watson whom I have in mind, as the one whom I refer to, and the one you refer to; both hail from Rushville, Ind., but for your own enlightenment, I would suggest that you endeavor to get facts before assailing the good name of a private citizen, such as James E. Watson has been for the past several years, and that the next opportunity you have to attend an address such as was delivered by Mr. Watson here, on Friday the 15th instant, you avail yourself of this opportunity. I am sure that you would agree with me that it was delivered by a man whose intellect and character are too rich to make it possible for him to do the things which you refer to in your article of the 27th instant. Here's hoping that James E. Watson will be the next Republican candidate for president of the United States.

OF RHEUMATISM

"Dear Readers—For years I had suffered untold agonies with what was considered an incurable case of rheumatism. I had given every remedy I laid hands upon a fair trial and had failed after doctor treat me, without even receiving as much as temporary relief. At last, the new scientific prescription, Lloyd's Kidney and Rheumatism Tablets, came to my notice. This preparation brought immediate relief and in two weeks I was absolutely cured. The cure has remained permanent, and I am very thankful. Sufferers—Take my advice and get a few "Lloyd's Tablets" from your druggist today and be convinced of the curative qualities of this new prescription. Signed, Geo. W. Gearhart, 2339 Weaver St., Columbus, O. P. S. Editor—Please insert this letter in some prominent place in your paper using my name if you wish. G. W. G." RATS!

Patricia is her name.
To Will Cook's barn she came.
She is a perfect lady cat,
A purr fit to love and pat.
She follows Will from door to door;
She brings him kittens by the score.
For eggs he thrusts his hands in
nests,
On baby cat's heads they will rest.

In summer when boys sleep in tents,
Patricia comes with wise intent.
She knows what that cat is for,
A nest for just eight kittens more.

Patricia every rat will get
And even hunts where traps are set
One morning Will came to the barn
And found his trap on pussy's arm.

Now who would do this kitty harm!
He took the trap from her poor
arm,
The broken bone with care he set
And gently watched his furry pet.

Patricia was just six weeks lame,
But now her foot is just the same,
She follows Will from door to door
And catches more rats than before.

Persons who read in the Daily Republican one day last week the story of how William Cook, corner of Main and Tenth streets, nursed a cat back to life will recall that he set the cat's broken leg and that it is as well as before the accident.

Patricia is truly a wonderful cat. It seems that she was formerly a pet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rosenerance, a companion cat to Caesar. One day Caesar departed and Patricia had full sway of the household. Then Caesar, after a long absence reappeared, and felt that he would have the same place he had always had held in the home. Patricia thought differently. She gave Caesar a good boxing and departed, taking up her abode at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Cook. And that's the story of how Mr. Cook came by Patricia.

THIRD DEGREE TO BE CONFERRED ON 19

Staff of Franklin Lodge No. 35 I. O.
O. F., Preparing to do Work in Spectacular Form.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR HERE

Franklin lodge No. 35, I. O. O. F. will confer the third degree in spectacular form for the first time in this city, and attempted by few lodges anywhere, Wednesday night. The staff, composed of thirty members, has been rehearsing under the direction of John Likenbroch of Indianapolis for the last three weeks. Time and expense have not been spared in preparation for the degree. There will be special music and full orchestral accompaniment for the work.

Mr. Likenbroch is an instructor of national reputation, having won prizes with his etries in many parts of the United States, some of which scored percentages which were never equaled before and have never been equaled since. After the work, at which the degree will be conferred on nineteen candidates, an oyster supper will be served in the dining room adjoining.

KAISER'S FRESH
TROOPS REPULSED

Brilliant Bayonet Charges by Allies
Unnerve Newcomers, Paris Statement Says Today

THEY GET BAPTISM OF FIRE

(By United Press.)

Paris, Feb. 1.—The Kaiser's fresh troops have been hurled into action near Ypres and have been thrown back with severe losses. Bayonet attacks unnerved the new regiments and they retreated in disorder.

Official dispatches claimed destruction of German trenches by French artillery at several points along the Aisne and the capture of German positions west of Soissons. German reinforcements received their baptism of fire in a charge against the French positions south-east of Ypres. A daylight attack was ordered. The Germans advanced doublequick upon the French trenches. Their lines wavered under hot machinegun fire and they broke and fled in disorder when the allied soldiers leaped from their trenches in a brilliant bayonet charge.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietor has so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollar or any case that it fails to cure. Send list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. BOXING TEAS ARE FAILURE

One Club Made Bid for Women Patronage and Only One Showed Up, She Being a Reporter

PRETTY TOUGH ON PROMOTER

Naming of John Rush as Coach at Princeton Causes Surprise, Especially With Grads

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)

New York, Feb. 1.—Boxing teas for women simply don't go around these parts. The gentler sex that makes its way home via the New York subway is willing to tackle other things Parisian but when it comes to watching two huskies maul each other around the ring—well, that's another story.

John Weismantel, who runs the Broadway Sporting club in Brooklyn made the bid for the women fight fans. John advertised that he would put on a weekly tea party, with boxing strictly on the side. After thorough press-agenting John threw open the club for the first affair at which he promised feminine boxing enthusiasts would gather.

It was pretty tough on John. There were plenty of "gents" in their shirt-sleeves, who chewed gum because John admonished them not to smoke in the presence of "ladies," but there was only one "lady" present. She confessed that she was sent over the bridge by a New York paper.

Princeton graduates and undergraduates are expressing some surprise at the naming of John H. Rush of Cleveland as head coach of the Tiger football team. Rush had held the Princeton record for the 100-yards—94.5—while he was in school but took his football on the sidelines. Some of the Princetonians, however, are pointing out that Bob Zuppke, the most brilliant coach the 1914 season produced in the west, was not a better man in football when he attended Wisconsin university.

Poughkeepsie may take on all the aspects of Henley in the English regatta season as the results of the change in the rowing program to be come effective at this year's race. Instead of bunching the freshmen, junior and varsity races in the afternoon as in the past, the two minor events will be rowed in the morning. There were some critics who were of the opinion that this would reduce the size of the crowds. The belief expressed here now is that the arrival of crowds in Poughkeepsie on the night before the big races, the mingling of old friends and the opportunity of making the hike up the river a sort of vacation will transform what formerly was only an afternoon's outing into a real sporting event.

comes acquainted with other families. She visits when there is no sickness in the family and these constitute her social service calls.

Miss Moore works to have a good influence on those with whom she comes in touch during her daily routine and to uplift living conditions generally. To this extent, largely, her work is educational in nature.

Persons who will be seen by the canvassers are asked to subscribe any sum they feel that they can give to help this cause along and they may pay it at their convenience. It is stated that there are probably a number of persons who would like to help and who may not be seen. They are requested to send or give their donations to any minister or to Miss Anna Bohannon, who is treasurer of the Rush County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, at the Rushville National bank.

home was a step in the right direction that led to moral and spiritual betterment as well.

First Baptist

Concerning the visiting nurse, the Rev. S. G. Huntington spoke briefly as follows at the First Baptist church Sunday morning:

"Since about the middle of August the Anti-Tuberculosis Society of Rush county, of which Dr. W. S. Coleman is president, has been doing a splendid work in Rushville and vicinity. A visiting nurse has been employed during this period and hundreds of professional visits have been made by her, scores of treatments given and much valuable instruction imparted to those who otherwise could not thus have been assisted. In some instances lives have been saved.

"Doubtless there are those who are only slightly, if at all, acquainted with these facts. As is well known, there is no more fatal disease than tuberculosis. Of the seventy-two deaths in Rushville last year, twelve were due to this dreaded disease. Almost one to six, a very high rate, but it well illustrates the fatal character of this awful plague. The work of the visiting nurse is invaluable to our city and county. Her expense until this present time has been borne exclusively by a few interested friends and the sale of Red Cross seals. It requires nearly one thousand dollars to maintain this line of work among us for one year. The only means of securing this fund is by popular subscription and free will offerings. Considering the great good accomplished by this means of combating the worst of all diseases and also helping the less fortunate, great liberality ought to be expressed in contributing toward its support. Rushville certainly needs and cannot afford to dispense with the services of the visiting nurse.

United Presbyterian

The Rev. A. W. Jamieson's mention of the visiting nurse campaign fitted in nicely with his sermon Sunday morning on the subject, "The Great Physician," taken from the text, Jer. 8:22: "Is there no balm in Gilead; is there no physician there?" Concerning the visiting nurse, in conclusion, he said:

"We are glad for the work that is being done by Miss Moore, our visiting nurse, in Rushville. She enters the homes of our city as an angel of mercy. She gives freely of the benefits of her education and experience for the restoring of the sick, safeguarding others from contagion or infection improving sanitary and living conditions. Her work is not distinctly religious, but improved physical conditions is a step towards improved moral and spiritual conditions. Miss Moore is supported by the free will offerings of the people, and we believe it is one of the best investments ever made for the welfare of our city. Jesus longs to heal the sin-sickness of every soul, that not death but life, and life eternal may be the portion of every man, of every woman."

"The prophet is lamenting for his people. He longs for a physician with a remedy, who would be able to heal their hurt. We find such a physician in Jesus Christ, who referred to His work in these words, 'The well have no need of a physician, but the sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.' The healing balm in His wonderful grace, all-sufficient for every person, and for every ill. He cares for the body, the house in which the man lives, but more precious truth; He is able to make well the man who lives within the body. He it is

"Who forgives all thy transgressions, Thy disease all who heal."

"The Christian like the little child in the home, ought to develop normally. He is born into the family of God. He is expected to 'Grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.' There is the 'Sincere milk of the word' for babes in Christ, and there is the 'Strong meat' for those who are able to bear it. John, in his first epistle, addresses 'Little children' 'Young men' and 'Fathers'. Certain duties and privileges belong to all, to the child, Samuel, as well as to the aged Eli. Power for all service comes from above, Acts 1:8 'Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you.' Faith is the trolley arm that reaches up, and connects us with the source of power above us, while we allow that power to be manifested in us, and through us. God looks after the upper contact, while we must look after this end of the connection.

"A diseased soul interferes with the working of that power. In this day, as in the apostle's day 1 Cor. 11:30 'Many are weak and sickly.' What does Jesus do with His weak and sickly children? He pleads with them to return unto Him, and He promises to heal them. When here in person, He wrought marvelous cures of the body that people might be blessed and trust Him for the healing of the soul. He prescribes the treatment for every sin-sick soul.

"Today, we are to represent the Master in a needy world. The body is not the all-important thing. The is of infinite value. But the soul is reached, oftentimes, through the body. In foreign fields, we have our medical missionaries and hospitals. Dr. Henry, of Greensburg, has done a wonderful work in Assiout, Egypt. Our good friend, Miss Emma Minger of the First church, Indianapolis, has just laid down her life, in this work, in India."

FINAL CHARGE WILL BE FIZZLE

chief of which that the city is worse off without saloons than with them. Always remember that the 'wet' argument, no matter how plausible it may appear on the surface, is illogical, self-contradictory and suicidal, and everlastingly with an ulterior motive behind it.

"e half-truths—this is the fact."

"Yes," we are our brother's keeper and if there is another time above another when we ought to sense the fact, it is now when that vicious and horny-headed monster, the licensed saloon, is endeavoring to fasten its unholy and bloody fingers upon the homes, the young manhood, the young womanhood, the children and all that is honorable and decent within our fair city and drag it down to hell. At all hazards let us keep the saloon out of Rushville."

St. Paul's M. E.

Last night at the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church the pulpit was filled by the Rev. L. W. Snyder of Philadelphia. Mr. Snyder whose mission in life is to serve and help all the boys he can come in touch with, selected for his text, Mat. 25: 40. "In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

During the delivery of the sermon he gave the saloon some telling blows. He related how he brought a saloon keeper to Christ in Idaho. He visited this man in his place of business at the request of others. When the man saw him enter he said: "I am ashamed of the business I am in." Mr. Snyder replied: "You are better than your business, and I advise that you get into some other business." This man, he said, acted on the suggestion and soon was engaged in a business which gave him the respect and confidence of the community. He said we were not fighting men individually when we were fighting against the saloon, but against a very bad business.

"Don't go into a saloon or into a pool room, boys," he added. "In these places," he continued, "boys and men not only learn how to loaf and to fall into evil ways." He said he hoped that Rushville would remain as 'dry' as it is. He thought that no greater calamity could happen to the city than for the saloons to be returned. He was interested in the community primarily because there were boys in it, and because his life work was a mission to boys. Since this was true he was against the saloon because it was a very bad thing for boys.

He concluded his remarks upon this part of the sermon by saying that after the city is voted "dry" the law should be enforced. "It's up to you men to see that this is done," he said. He said the church could not do this alone. The good citizens would have to interest themselves in it and insist that this lawless business should not defeat them in their purpose to have a "dry" city.

TALKS TO PUPILS
ON "EFFICIENCY"

Dr. Leonard W. Snyder is heartily
Received at the High School
This Morning.

ABOUT 300 IN THE AUDIENCE

Dr. Leonard W. Snyder, of Philadelphia, known as "The Boys Minister," addressed the pupils of the seventh and eighth grades and the high school in the Graham school assembly room this morning on the subject, "Efficiency." There were about 300 in the audience and they enjoyed the address immensely. Dr. Snyder held the attention of the pupils through the address, which was full of inspirations. He was given a fine reception when he appeared. Dr. Snyder outlined the subject under three heads. He said the first step in being efficient was to perform one's duty. He declared that doing one's duty was not simply doing the things assigned, but doing all the things that it was thought needed to be done. Responsibility, he said, lies in an important bearing on efficiency. He urged the pupils to be brave and meet all responsibilities well. The third important step in efficiency, Dr. Snyder asserted, was preparing for the future. He told the pupils they were not preparing for the future unless they did more than was required of them. If any one holds a position, he declared in closing, its value does not lie in the possession of it, but the opportunities it affords for preparing for the future.

COTTON LOAN POOL
EXPIRES TODAY

Last Day for Applications for Loans
From Big National Bank Fund.
Small Amount Out

DONE UNDER RESERVE BOARD

(By United Press.)

Washington, Feb. 1.—Benefits of the federal "cotton loan pool" expire today. This is the last day for applications for loans from the $135,000,000 fund voluntarily pooled by national banks. The federal reserve board decided that it was unfair to the banks to have money tied up awaiting cotton loan applications longer than today, believing that all cotton growers, warehouses or brokers hit by the war have had time to ask and receive money from the pooled funds by this time.

The federal reserve board which had in its unofficial capacity as the central committee to handle the cotton loan fund subscribed by all national banks, thinks the situation is now well in hand. Only a comparative small part of the $135,000,000 subscribed has been loaned out.

from a flood. Rain or snow is also forecast for tonight.

Frozen down spouts and eaves troughs caused considerable trouble at the Graham school building yesterday. The water poured over the side of the building and damaged the gymnasium and assembly room and two other grade rooms.

The new school building was given a severe test yesterday but not a single leak was found. The system of drainage is said to be perfect and the down spout go inside the building and are thus prevented from freezing.

There was also a leak in the Knights of Pythias building yesterday but fortunately little damage was done. The water came in through that part of the roof which covered the property room. There was linoleum on the floor. Some property of the Uniform Rank was slightly damaged.
